

T. LANE WILSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL COUNSEL

Professional Experience

Lane Wilson was named Senior Vice President and General Counsel for Williams in April 2017. He manages Williams' legal, government affairs, outreach, and compliance teams. Wilson had previously been appointed to the federal bench as a Magistrate Judge for the Northern District of Oklahoma, presiding over both civil and criminal matters, including substantial civil mediation responsibilities. He served on the Tenth Circuit Judicial Council and was the Northern District's designated judge on electronic discovery issues in criminal cases. In 2016, he was appointed to the Judicial Conference Committee on Criminal Law by Chief Justice John Roberts.

Prior to his judicial service, Wilson was a partner and member of the Board of Directors for Hall, Estill in Tulsa. His practice focused on complex commercial litigation, including both trial and appellate work. The team of litigation attorneys and paralegals Wilson managed represented energy, telecommunications, technology, and construction companies. Prior to attending law school, Wilson worked for Exxon (now Exxon/Mobil).

Education

Wilson received his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from The University of Tulsa in 1989, and his Juris Doctor degree with Honors from The University of Tulsa College of Law in 1994, where he served as the Managing Editor of the Tulsa Law Journal (now Tulsa Law Review).

While an undergraduate at The University of Tulsa, Wilson was a member of the school's varsity men's tennis team, winning an individual conference championship.

Industry/Community Leadership

Wilson is past president and current board member of Natural Allies, Inc., an energy focused 501(c)(4), and serves on the boards of the Interstate Natural Gas Association of America (INGAA), where he sits on the Audit Committee, Tulsa Area United Way, where he chairs the Fundraising Committee, The University of Tulsa's Collins College of Business Executive Advisory Board and College of Law Dean's Advisory Board, the Tulsa Community Foundation, The Williams Companies Foundation, and the River Parks Foundation. Wilson is a member of the American Petroleum Institute Law Committee and serves as a member of the GRAND Mental Health Advisory Council, the Women's Energy Network (WEN) National Advisory Council, and the Tulsa Public Schools Superintendent's Advisory Council. He is the past president of The University of Tulsa's Friends of Finance and has served on the boards of Tulsa Habitat for Humanity, Inc., OklahomaBizPac, The University of Tulsa Lettermen's Association, Crosstown Learning Center, and the Eisenhower International School Foundation. Wilson was inducted into The University of Tulsa College of Law Hall of Fame in 2022 and received the Northeastern Oklahoma Black Lawyers Association Service Award in 2013.

